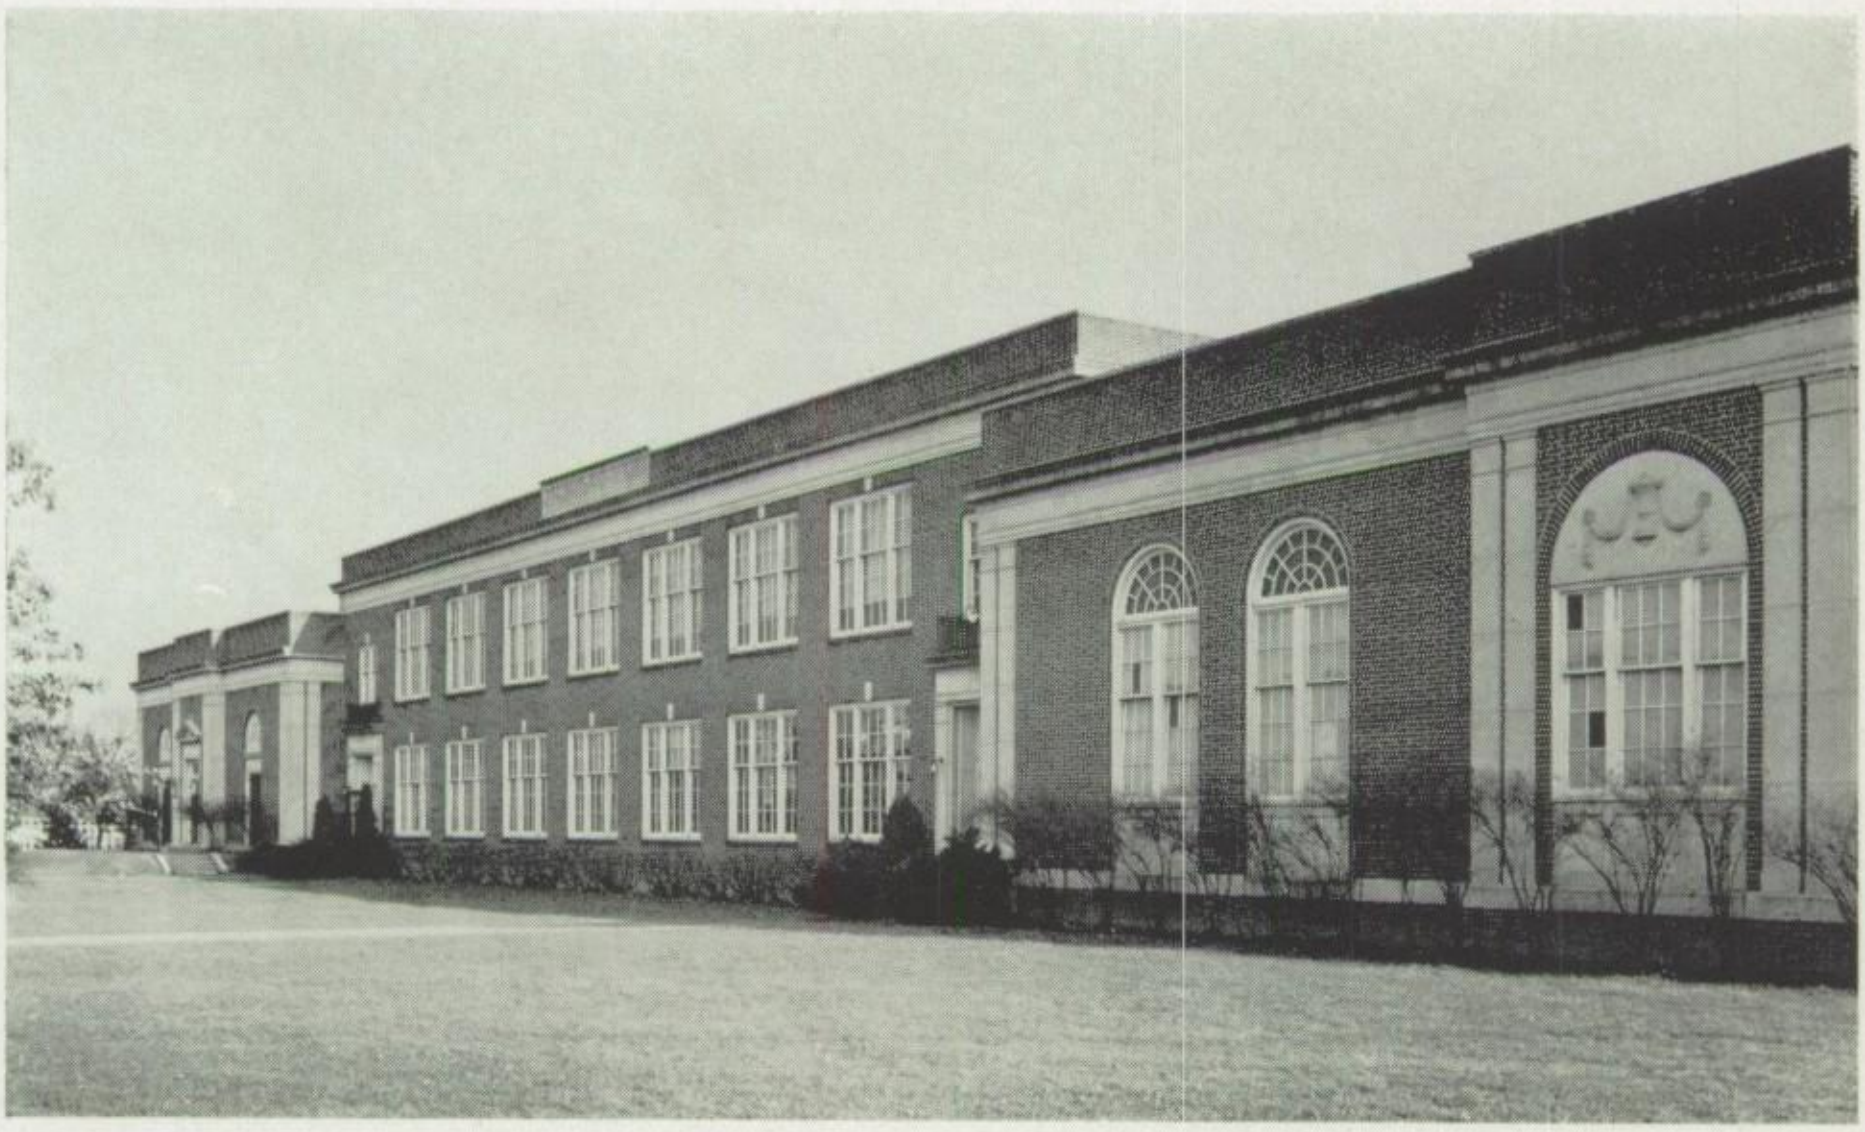
LEWISBURG HIGH SCHOOL
ALMA MATER

Now we all march on together,
On through fair and stormy weather,
And whene'er we have a fight to fight
We win it for the Green and White.
She our pride and spirit raises,
As we stand to sing to her praises,
And we proudly do our school revere
And greet her with a rousing triple cheer.

For old L. H. S.
To thee your sons are ever loyal,
Old L. H. S.
Your name will ever cherished be,
Old L. H. S.
We'll give a cheer for that royal
Old L. H. S.
We love you ever more.



LEWISBURG HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

This year, in addition to pursuing the regular course of high school study and activity, we have striven more toward preparing for the best possible service to ourselves and our country, adding to our work those endeavors which have been beneficial to the school and the community in this time of crisis. There have been new opportunities to serve, new tasks to perform, and our school has arisen to the occasion.

We of the ONEIDA staff have attempted to give an accurate record of the achievements of our school in the past year, to show how its effort in the air raid defense, the scrap drive, the Red Cross benefits, and other services has made Lewisburg High School an essential part of the community at war.

The ONEIDA staff shares the deep pride of the school in what has been accomplished this year by the enthusiasm, energy, and the ingenuity of the student body.

DEDICATION

As a tribute to them for the sacrifices which they are making, for the spirit with which they are fighting, and for the ideals which they are upholding, we dedicate this, the 1943 ONEIDA, to all graduates of our school who are in uniform as active members of our armed forces.

Because of the great difficulty involved in securing the names of all graduates in the active service of our country, unintentionally, some names may have been omitted.

But we here honor all, both the named and the unnamed.

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE . . .

I AM sure that everyone in Lewisburg High School shares the deep satisfaction I, as principal of the school, feel in connection with our activities in this time of national emergency.

First, some of the present student body, many of our graduates, are in the armed forces. We are deeply proud of them, confident that they will hold high the American tradition.

From the first stamp drive the school has been active in all opportunities to serve as efficient citizens. Organized stamp and bond sales were put on, scrap was collected, our people went out to assist the adults of the town in their work. We were active in helping the Defense Council in policing, in air raid service, in first aid. In the school we planned our own air raid drill, the most efficient in town. The Victory Corps, once proposed, was taken over by both boys and girls with enthusiasm and efficiency. The largest activity was by the Girls' League and the Boys' League. Each organization bought a bond, thus helping the war effort and the school in the future when these bonds mature.

But, as principal, my satisfaction is greatest in the fact that nearly everything we do is managed by the student body itself. A mere suggestion is necessary, then pupils step forward, organize, and drill. This is the essence of Americanism: to do the things which are necessary for which we are fighting.

When the guns are at last silent, when the lights come on again, and the marching columns of fighting men swing by, the people of Lewisburg High School from faculty members to freshmen can look on with pride, sure in the confidence that we have done our part.

H. E. STOVER, Principal,
Lewisburg High School.

THE PICTURE of high school life was vitally changed this year, for with more crowding of time and energy, many readjustments to wartime activity were necessary. Although a certain amount of confusion and even carelessness resulted, the school and community realized how great had been the school's accomplishments and that their achievements have been the result of hard and often thankless work.

In early September, the Student Council organized and put into effect a Student Air Raid Protection System, an adoption of but great improvement over last year's set-up. The service consisted of five separate units—air raid wardens, fire wardens, messenger corps, and morale, the duty of the organization being the operation of air raid drills. By thus maintaining a separate air raid defense system which worked in co-operation with the community's, Lewisburg High School rendered valuable and time-saving service to the local Civilian Defense.

The Girls' Octette, under the direction of Miss Robison, by their participation in patriotic and church singing in Lewisburg and nearby towns throughout the year, made a definite contribution to the spirit of the community and the nation as a whole.

Another project undertaken by the Student Council was an intensive drive for metal and rubber scrap in early October. Lasting three days, the drive was climaxed by a dance, the admission being several pounds of scrap. The drive brought two and a half tons of junk from water-tanks and bedsprings to a harrow and several tires.

The need for more concerted and unified action by the student body resulted in the mobilization of the school into the school army or Victory Corps. Composed of four companies, one from each class, which were divided into platoons and squads, the Corps was officered completely by students selected because of their previous experience. Usually for two hours each week the Corps drilled and took calisthenics, heard several lectures on the fundamentals of trigonometry, learned rifle sighting, and participated in community rallies. It is the hope of its originators that the Victory Corps may some day expand to include work in radio, meteorology, map making, and more intensive physical education.

The Stamp Club, the purchase of the jeep, the Girls' League silk stocking drive, the volunteer fire fighting corps, the Red Cross benefit shows, the League's purchasing of War Bonds, the volunteer farm help, the new courses in pre-flight aviation mathematics, and many other activities all have been the result of the school's determination to help both themselves and their community and country.

The duties performed by individual students have been many and varied, such as the helping in rationing, the enthusiastic and commendable work for the local Civilian Defense Volunteer Office, the energetic sale of War Stamps, the planting of gardens, work which may seem insignicant but which actually is indispensable and invaluable in our victory effort.

This was Lewisburg High School's first war year—a year of some confusion and even carelessness, but a year of real service and sacrifice.

SENIOR CONFERENCE

NOVEMBER 6, 7, and 8, 1942

From two-thirty o'clock Friday afternoon until noon on Sunday, forty-five seniors lived in a world all their own. The Senior Conference, now a tradition, was held November 6, 7, and 8 at the Bucknell University Recreation Center at Cowan, under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Herrold.

Every minute planned, the two days were filled with a variety of action ranging from lectures and discussions to a lively scavenger hunt for biological specimens. Three speeches, "The Value of a Dollar and an Hour", "Independence and Self Reliance", and "Friendship, Courtship, and Marriage", were followed by discussions in the various groups. Entertainment consisted of a campfire marshmallow roast and hayride on Friday night and a rousing, old-fashioned square dance on Saturday night, as well as hiking, softball, football, and impromptu singing.

Arriving in Lewisburg Sunday afternoon, the group unanimously agreed that the Senior Conferences to come are events which should not be missed, not only for the inspiration but for the real fun as well.

ONEIDA ONE ACT PLAY CONTEST

FEBRUARY 11 and 15, 1943

The scene is the high school auditorium; the time is eight o'clock on Friday evening, February 11, 1943. The house lights go off; a hush falls over the room. In the wings the prompters are ready . . . the make-up has been put on, and the freshman play director, Miss Robison, stands backstage with her fingers crossed, giving a few last minute tips to her cast. The last lines of introduction are being recited to the impatient audience . . . the actors are in their positions . . . the curtains open.

The opening of the curtain that night climaxed days of intensive rehearsing for the actors, sleepless nights for the directors, and hectic afternoons for the property committee. This was the opening evening of the one-act play contest, sponsored by the business staff of the ONEIDA and consisting of four one-act plays, each casted and produced by one of the four classes under the direction of a teacher.

With George Lawson as the big brother and lover of the family and Ned Irland as the bothersome baby brother, the freshman play gave the other three classes some good reasons for their apprehension that night. After the curtain had closed, the audience joined with Mr. Heckart in a rousing sing, giving the three Theater Guild judges a chance to compare notes and giving Mrs. Mathias an opportunity to do a little eleventh hour coaching to her cast.

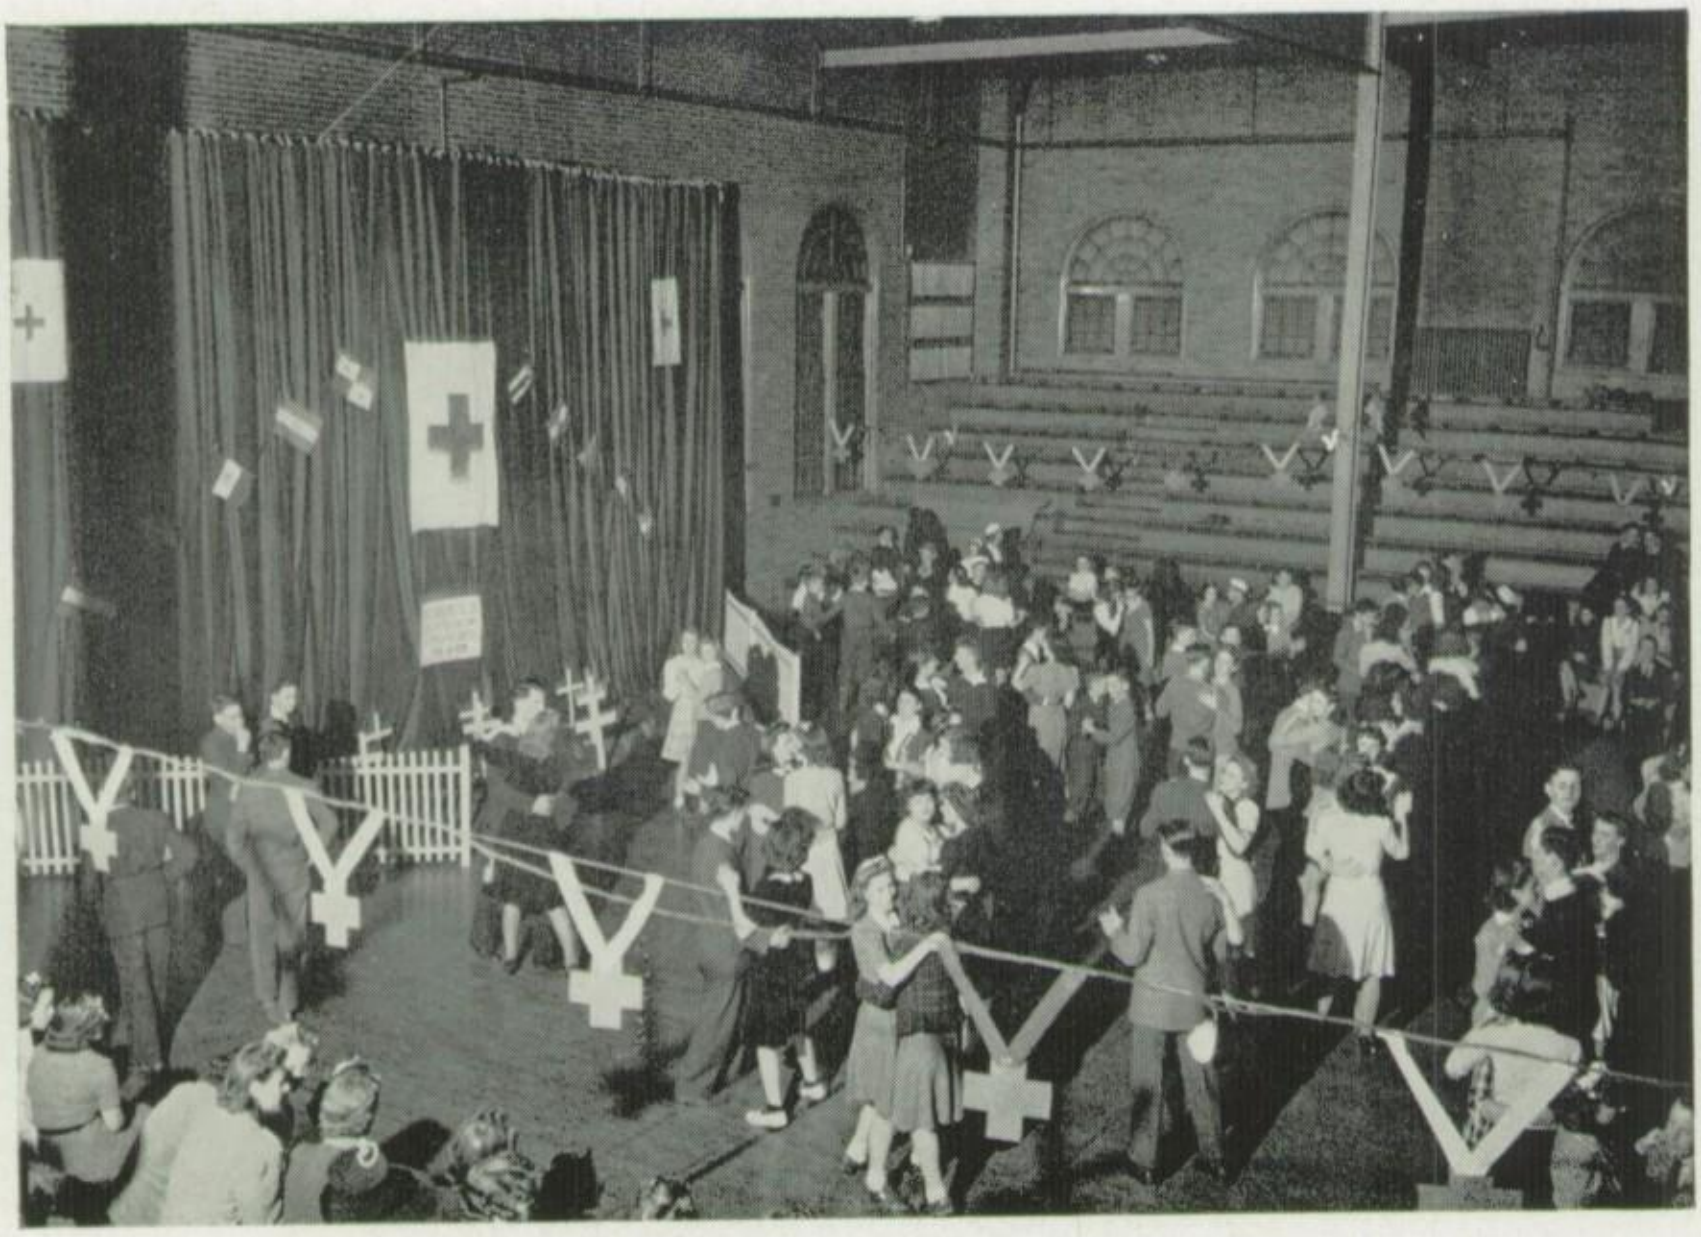
Once more the lights went off and the curtain opened on the sophomore play, starring Richard McClure as the hen-pecked hubby and Joanne Hook as his bed-fast hen. As the evening drew to a close, the seniors, realizing how disillusioned they had been and how they had underestimated freshman and sophomore ability, resolved to remain there and rehearse their play, greatly pleasing their director, Mrs. Erdley.

The night of February 15 came too soon for the juniors and seniors. As the last of the seniors emerged from the make-up room and as Charlotte Breisch perfected her German accent, the curtains opened on the senior play, featuring Gladys McDowell as the suspicious landlady, Mark McCullough as her terrible tenant who had become the unwilling possessor of somebody's baby, and June Frantz as his unsuspecting fiancee. Climaxed by an emphatic embrace and the consequent clicking of flash bulbs, the senior play left the others less confident than before.

The junior play, involving Helen Painter and Faylene Wagner in a quarrel over their husbands, Stuart Whyte and LaRue Loughhead, brought to a conclusion the contest and left only the decision of the judges.

After several minutes of nerve-racking suspense, Mr. Keller of the Theater Guild announced to the breathless audience that the first prize was awarded unanimously to the junior class play; the second to the sophomore. Dazedly, LaRue Loughhead went forward to receive the award on behalf of his class, accompanied by jubilant shouting from the junior girls and the flashing of cameras by the freshman boys.

The lights went on again, the crowd began to disperse, and Mrs. Latsha, Mrs. Mathias, and their casts were overwhelmed with congratulations.



LEWISBURG SCHOOLS' ALL-OUT FOR THE RED CROSS

MARCH 30, 1943

Surely one of the highlights of our school life this year was the splendid co-operation that marked the Red Cross drive and benefit in the school. Besides being represented by high school girls in the local theater collecting donations for this worthiest of charities, Lewisburg High School also went all-out and gave its own program and dance for the benefit of the Red Cross.

The wearing of red, white, and blue tags made by the grade school children heralded the approach of the gala evening. In the auditorium, a large audience composed of students and townspeople were shown various tableaux on the scope and value of the Red Cross, its work between the front lines and the home. The impressive program, planned and directed by Miss Robison, the general chairman for the evening, consisted of music and pageantry, all the participants being grade school and high school people.

Refreshments in the halls, card playing under the direction of the P. T. A., and a festive dance in the gymnasium sponsored by the Sons of the Green Dragon all added to the gaiety of the evening.

With more than two hundred dollars as their share of the quota, the students of Lewisburg High School once again proved their willingness to help where help is needed and their ability to do practically anything when given the goal and the "go-ahead."

THE MASQUE

Under a new leader, Miss Elliot, the Masque has enjoyed its seventh year in the high school. The chief activities of this dramatic organization are presenting plays or monologues in chapel, learning about theatrical work from various speakers at the monthly meetings, and occasionally taking trips to plays in nearby towns.

At the beginning of this year the Masque consisted of ten members, several others joining later.

STUDENT COUNCIL

First Semester

Besides its regular activities, the Student Council has assumed new responsibilities this year. Under the leadership of their able officers, the members have carried out these duties effectively and diligently. One of the outstanding profits has been the organizing and executing of the Lewisburg High School Air Raid Drill. To give the students an opportunity to help in the present crisis, the Council sponsored a scrap drive and dance, for which both the Council and student body were commended.

In other matters relative to the school, the Student Council has worked earnestly, accomplishing much during the first semester.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Second Semester

Continuing the fine work undertaken in the first semester, the Student Council, in its second semester, has added to its list of patriotic activities by preparing a scrapbook record of Lewisburg High School's contributions to the community and the nation. The genuine interest displayed in this as well as other valuable projects has made possible achievements of which both students and townspeople may be proud.

Besides counciling on school affairs, the Student Council has willingly accepted new responsibilities created by the war, so that at the close of the year the Council has reason to feel that it has done much for the school and the community.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Under the guidance of Mrs. Mathias the Girls' League has been a pleasure as well as a profit to the girls of Lewisburg High School. Last year, clubs and general meetings were conducted, but this year, in order to promote co-operation with the leaders we decided to hold general meetings the year round.

These meetings and other activities of the League, such as the Mother-Daughter Banquet and the Father-Daughter Banquet, the choosing of "little sisters," proved to be a great delight to the girls.

The knowledge obtained on various subjects discussed at the meetings was instructive and profitable.

SONS OF THE GREEN DRAGON

The main activities of the Boys' League this year coincided with activities of the community. During the county scrap drive in the fall, several boys helped by going with trucks to nearby farms. Picking, packing, and shipping tomatoes and potatoes were ways in which about 40 volunteers assisted the farmers in their necessary work.

To buy a War Bond, the League asked for contributions from its members and purchased a twenty-five dollar bond which was placed in the treasury.

SONS OF THE GREEN DRAGON

Standing, Left to Right—Loughhead, Cornelius, Mr. Snyder, Walgran.

GIRLS' CHORUS

Serving a special need for good music this year, the Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Miss Inez Robison, worked earnestly and seriously to produce songs meaningful and uplifting to all who listened. The Chorus, consisting of junior and senior girls, participated in many programs, the most important being the annual Christmas Carol Service.

Realizing the seriousness of the times in which we live, the girls have attempted to interpret songs that express the faith and meaning of eternal values. Through this outstanding organization, both the members and listeners gained a deeper appreciation for good music.

CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE

The twenty-second of December, 1942, marked the fifteenth anniversary of the annual Chirstmas Carol Service. In spite of the miserable weather, the audience appreciated more than ever before the beauty and hope in the old Christmas songs and carols, as well as the modern.

The choral group, consisting of more than fifty mixed voices, was directed by Miss Robison. To conclude the program, the audience joined enthusiastically with the chorus in singing the old familiar carols, and once again the auditorium rang with the hopeful "Peace on earth, good will to men."

CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE

MAY DAY

According to annual custom, May Day was held again this year, sponsored by the Girls' League.

Following the procession came the crowning of the new queen, June Frantz, by last year's queen, Helen Lundy.

This year, instead of the customary dances, flag drills and acrobatics were presented by the members of the Gym Team. The entire student body participated in the singing of American songs, and the program was concluded by the Maypole dance, the Maypole being decorated in red, white, and blue.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Never before in the history of the F. F. A. have its achievements been so purposeful as they are now. Although the projects undertaken in the past have gained worthy admiration and recognition, this year the boys' work is received with greater fervor and enthusiasm.

Like many other groups in the school, the Future Farmers realize their responsibilities now and in the future that will be theirs, and with new determination, they are preparing themselves to challenge the post-war world as the Future Farmers of America.

VARSITY SOCCER

Getting off to a rather poor start, the Green Dragons ended a fair season by winning nine of thirteen games played and averaging .667 points for the season.

Although the team had no coach and only four lettermen, they came in second in the Union County League, finally defeating their bitter rival, Mifflinburg, 3-0, in the last game.

The standings follow:

Lewisburg	2	Montandon	0
Lewisburg	5	Montandon	0
Lewisburg	1	Watsontown	2
Lewisburg	2	Alumni	3
Lewisburg	1	Turbotville	0
Lewisburg	5	Turbotville	0
Lewisburg	2	Sigma Chi	0

UNION COUNTY LEAGUE

Lewisburg	2	Laurelton	1
Lewisburg	1	Mifflinburg	2
Lewisburg	1	Laurelton	0
Lewisburg	0	Mifflinburg	1
Lewisburg	3	Laurelton	0
Lewisburg	3	Mifflinburg	0

VARSITY BASEBALL

Last year's baseball squad, although not winning the League championship, tied with Sunbury High School for first place, Sunbury winning the first game, 7-6, and forfeiting the second to Lewisburg.

Despite the fact that the games with Laurelton and Mifflinburg were not close, they provided thrills for all who witnessed them.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Opening the season with a smashing victory over Selinsgrove, the Green Dragons soon lost their luck and fate seemed pitted against them for the remainder of the season. With a practically new team to work with, Coach Spancake had, by the close of the season, made it a smooth unit which, although winning only one other game, showed plenty of promise for next year.

This year's team had the services of only two of last year's varsity lettermen, a fact which may help to explain our setbacks this season.

CHEERLEADERS

When our five cheerleaders, bedecked in green and white, sprint onto the basketball floor between halves and let out with a rousing "Fight, Team, Fight!" it stirs the fighting spirit of the boys on the team, makes them resolve to do their best for old L. H. S. But without the lusty support of the entire student body, what encouragement do they get?

Only by the full-throated effort of the whole school as well as its energetic cheerleaders, can we expect to come through the season with flying colors.

Kneeling, Left to Right—Solomon, Myers, Wagner, Snyder, Kauffman.
Standing—Whyte, Remer, Walgran, Craumer, Rice, Cornelius, Mr. Spancake.

Left to Right—Irland, Frantz, Brouse, Gabriel, Myers.

BOYS' INTERCLASS SOCCER

This year's interclass soccer crown was split between the juniors and the seniors.

Under the able leadership of Jack Sechler (junior) and Richard Wagner (senior) these two teams battled it out with three wins, one loss, and one tie. They never had an opportunity to play the deciding game.

GIRLS' INTERCLASS SOCCER

With three years of practice behind them, the senior girls this year took the interclass soccer championship, winning without a defeat. The captain of the victorious team was Charlotte Breisch and the manager, Marie Yocum.

The physical education director, Miss Sassaman, directed the interclass work.

BOYS' INTERCLASS SOCCER CHAMPIONS

GIRLS' INTERCLASS SOCCER CHAMPIONS

First Row, Left to Right—Yocum, Breisch, Gold.

Second Row—Gabriel, Shannon, Craumer, McCreary, Frantz, Housel, Arbogast, Irland.

BOYS' INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

This year's crown was set upon the heads of the mighty senior five. Under the able leadership of Captain Richard Wagner, this fast-moving quintet rolled over all competition and retained a clean slate throughout the season.

The scores read as follows:

Seniors	80	Freshmen	10
Seniors	69	Sophomores	12
Seniors	48	Juniors	6
Seniors	71	Juniors	30
Seniors	19	Sophomores	6

The seniors therefore scored 287 points to their opponents' 54.

GIRLS' INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

Continuous success has been the lot of the junior girls, making them the champions of interclass basketball again this year. Beginning their sophomore year to take the laurels, the junior team once more overcame ardent opposition to come out on top. Captain Jeanne Young and Manager Ruth Rice helped select the victorious team.

GYM TEAM

The military spirit that has prevailed since December 7, 1941, has shown its influence in the work of the Gym Team. Under the direction of Miss Sassaman, the members of the group have been coached in flag drills, marching, and other exercises. Particularly, the May Day program, of which the Team is an indispensable part, has been affected by this martial spirit.

Of this the Gym Team may well be proud, and the entire school may be confident that the work of this outstanding organization in the realm of physical education will be continued, even after its worth in the present emergency is recognized.

GIRLS' BOWLING CLUB

Last year, under the supervision of the Ladies' Inter-City Bowling League, the Girls' Bowling Club was organized in Lewisburg High School. With four girls on each team, this year's Club consisted of two senior teams, one junior team, two sophomore teams, and one freshman team.

The senior "A" team was once more victorious, winning forty-four games and losing seven, with a total score of 864. The juniors came in second with a score of 628.

The following girls composed the winning team: Betty Housel, Marie Yocum, Mary Gabriel, and Wanda Shannon.
